EXAMINER

DETAILED ACTION

EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Marlene Klein, Reg. No. 43,718 on 11/7/2007.

In claim 4: Please correct the dependency status of the claim 4 from "according to claim 1" to "according to claim 2".

In claim 20: Please remove the repeated word "data", in lines 3 of the claim to correct the typing error.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 1 – 20 are allowed.

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The most relevant prior art of the record, Yoo et al. (US 6,999,512) fails to anticipate or fairly suggest the steps, d) conversion setting means for setting-up variable-length-code conversion based on both a predetermined parameter for use in the second encoding and an encoding parameter used in the first encoding;

f) variable-length-code converting means for converting a variable length code in the encoded data in accordance with the variable-length-code conversion set-up by the conversion setting means;

g) DC-component converting means for decoding DC components in the encoded data in the frame into quantized values and using the quantized values to perform predictive encoding based on the second encoding; and

h) encoded-data output means for shaping the second header information and outputs of the variable-length-code converting means, and the DC-component converting means into data, and outputting the data as data encoded by the second encoding, as specifies in the independent claims 1 and 12, and shown in fig. 4, elements 9 - 106.

Claims 2 – 11 and 13 – 20 are dependent to allowable independent claims 1 and 12, therefore, these claims as a whole consider allowable.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Conclusion

4. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Yoo et al. (US 6,999,512).

Panusopone et al. (US 6,647,061).
